

MEDIA ADVISORY

J.P. MORGAN HONORS SOLDIERS AND THEIR FAMILIES

100 J.P. Morgan executives welcome home service men and women and assemble care packages for soldiers overseas

WHAT: One hundred J.P. Morgan executives from across the nation will participate in Welcome Home a Hero, a volunteer program to support and greet troops at DFW International Airport as they return home for two weeks of rest and recuperation. After greeting the soldiers, the J.P. Morgan Executives will proceed to Hyatt Regency where they will assemble 300 care packages to be sent to troops in Afghanistan and Iraq. Care packages will include personal care items, snacks, and pocket entertainment devices.

Guest speaker is war veteran Melanie Clemmons, who will talk about her nine years of military service in the Army as a Staff Sergeant.

This project is in partnership with the Volunteer Center of North Texas, which seeks to connect volunteers of all ages and backgrounds to the nonprofit organizations and opportunities that need their assistance.

WHEN: 8:00 a.m. – 12 p.m., Friday, June 10, 2011

WHO:

- The Volunteer Center of North Texas
- 100 J.P. Morgan executives
- Service men and women

WHERE: Hyatt Regency Terminal C Meeting Room
2334 North International Parkway
DFW Airport, TX 75261

WHY: By partnering with the Volunteer Center, J.P. Morgan will be making an impact in the community by providing emotional and material support to the soldiers and their families who need it most.

This service project is managed and coordinated by VCNT's Hands at Work™ Corporate Employee Program, which optimizes the effectiveness of employee volunteers while ensuring a rewarding volunteer experience. VCNT collaborates with local nonprofit organizations to provide any size corporate employee group the opportunity to volunteer, learn and lead in their communities.

CONTACT: Ashley E. Hyder
Manager, Public Relations & Communications
(832) 264-0814 – cell or ahyder@vcnt.org