Volunteer Connection

With Volunteer Connection, member organizations can post, review and edit any of their volunteer opportunities online. Volunteers can search for on-going opportunities or view listings on the project calendar. Contact information from interested volunteers is e-mailed directly to your agency.

Each week, volunteer opportunities from our partner agencies are promoted in print, radio, television and social networking outlets by our media partners.

Donated Goods Program

VCNT's Donated Goods program matches essential goods from the corporate sector to nonprofit agencies that need them most through DG Stores in Dallas and Fort Worth. Nonprofits receive significant savings on new items for their agency and clients. Authorized shoppers from Partner agencies can receive passes to bring one guest with them to shop in special Fundraiser shopping days.

VeriFYI

VeriFYI provides nonprofit organizations access to a comprehensive, low-cost criminal background screening process.

Community Service Restitution

The Community Service Restitution Program places eligible court-mandated individuals in volunteer positions to fulfill service hours assigned by the courts.

Education & Training

Trainings provide nonprofit organizations access to education and training opportunities with topics related to the essentials of volunteer management.

Partner agencies receive a 50 percent discount on training workshops, and up to 2 hours of free volunteer management consulting.

North Texas News

Our monthly e-newsletter provides tips and techniques for recruiting and managing volunteers, as well as information and reminders about valuable VCNT services.

Group Volunteer Projects

Through programs such as HandsOn, Hands At Work™, Youth Volunteer Corps of North Texas, and North Texas Volunteer Challenge, VCNT facilitates dozens of corporate and community days of service benefiting local schools and nonprofits every year. With a Partner Membership, you become a preferred site for these group volunteer opportunities.

Name Recognition

As a Partner member, VCNT helps spread the word about your agency with a direct link from the Web site to yours. We also list your agency in the annual report and in the corporate e-newsletter which goes to more than 500 local corporations

Agency Relations

The Agency Relations Department at VCNT is available to provide information and assistance to all of our member agencies. Contact Agency Relations at membership@vcnt.org, or by phone at 1-866-797-VCNT (8268), ext 238.
